

Immigration and economics

As we all know a "minuteman" is an activist who goes to the border and takes illegal immigrants to jail. The main idea of this movie is to make the minuteman understand the situation of the illegal immigrants. The names of the characters are France Gorge the minuteman his wife Jane, well Jane didn't go with him to the illegal immigrants house. The name of the Illegal immigrants is Roberto and Patty the parents, and their kids are Ariel, Albania, Ricardo, Armada, Karina.

the family struggles a lot to live they do a lots of work but earn a little bit because they are undocumented, they cannot even go back to their country it's impossible. Patty sells cans and she gets $5 and she keeps that money for Christmas for her kids. They get 15000 per year. Armada wants to be the first one in the family who goes to college. She's also a very good student a hard working girl. Patty's parents are dead, she didn't have a chance to see them before they die, So Gorge decided to go an visit Mexico and that's when he realized why those people migrated and he felt bad and it's important to know how other people live because of we have to be in their foot step to judge. Otherwise we will never be able to know their pain and in what they are going through.
